CHELSEA LS-815 ZERO-GRAVITY RECLINERS TRANSFORMED KOREA

Dasan CGV in South Korea has elevated its cinematic experience with the installation of Leadcom's premium Chelsea LS-815 zero-gravity recliners, setting a new benchmark for luxury seating in theatres. Designed with advanced ergonomics, these recliners provide exceptional comfort while supporting the body in a natural zero-gravity position, enhancing relaxation during long screenings.

What makes this transformation remarkable is the use of specially engineered risers, which allowed the entire installation to be completed without any structural renovation. This innovative approach ensured faster execution, minimal disruption, and complete preservation of the existing theatre layout.

The project highlights how thoughtful design and smart engineering can modernize entertainment spaces efficiently. By combining adaptability and luxury functionality, the recliners demonstrate how premium seating solutions can upgrade audience experience while remaining practical for large-scale venues. This installation reflects the growing demand for high-comfort, future-ready cinema interiors that balance elegance with operational ease.
